Living Books

Paper Quilling by Sarah Mueller

Author and speaker, Grace Fox's passion is to connect the dots between faith and real life so her audiences might live the life God intends. Drawing from Scripture and personal experiences, she uses the written page and public stage to build Christ-based confidence in audiences worldwide. Grace's quick wit, real-life stories and Biblical insight keep her in constant demand as a speaker.

National radio and TV programs, including 100 Huntley Street, It's a New Day and The Harvest Show, look to Grace as a trusted guest. Her writing includes hundreds of articles for magazines including Focus on the Family and Insights Canada. Among her eight books is Moving from Fear to Freedom; A Woman's Guide to Peace in Every Situation and its corresponding DVD-based Bible Study.

Mother of three adult children and grandparent to five, Grace lives with her husband of 32 years in Abbotsford, BC, where they're the national co-directors of International Messengers Canada, a ministry offering creative short-term and career missionary opportunities in Eastern Europe.
