Study Notes Handout: Week Nine

In Chapter 11, Solomon's sins are on full display. The 'small' sins have now escalated into full blown rebellion against God. His love for God is non-existent. He is going through the motions of religiosity without a real relationship with God.

God pronounces judgement on Solomon, but still exercises grace for the sake of David.

Solomon's life is a life of warning against letting our hearts turn away from God.
