

One of our goals as a church family is to create a number of Connecting Points that you can make use of to foster Christ-honoring friendships. We hope that as you familiarize yourself with the opportunities found within the Connecting Points Brochure one or two of them will be of interest to you and suit your schedule so that you can join us! Brochures can be found at our Welcome and Resource Centres – or online (www.whyteridgebaptist.ca).

How do I become a follower of Jesus Christ? It begins with recognizing our need. All of us live broken lives in one way or another because of sin. A follower of Christ is one who realizes that God, in His love, has provided for our need through His Son Jesus. When we see that our lives can be restored, we turn from our sin and brokenness and receive Jesus Christ. We then continue on a new path closer and closer to God.

Message from the Artist - Darlene McPherson

When picking a scripture to share, you should be directed to a scripture that, although it may be a family favourite or a personal favourite, speaks to welcoming a person/family to the church or gives a person comfort, support, gives them a sense of belonging, friendship, hope etc.

When I first came up with the idea of trees as a subject matter, I was healing from a health issue. I was thinking of people who may feel alone and distant from each other. Then, the longer I thought, I began to understand that we are like trees. Each tree stands alone but their branches touch and connect. They are united. Interestingly enough, even their roots connect providing a strong foundation. Many trees make a forest. Many people together make a congregation.

With this in mind, in what ways do we connect? We connect through words and action. When you are a new person to a congregation, you connect through words—the welcoming words we say to a new person. We invite that person to join in/participate etc. If you are established in the congregation, perhaps you are “new” to a particular issue/problem such as divorce, addiction, mental health issues, grief etc. You will need words of comfort as well and you will be invited to join a group which can give you support.

This is an important project and one that must speak to you. Perhaps you have a better idea regarding scripture choice and that’s great! Let’s do something that is the best fit for you!

Organized Creativity

1. Take time to pray about a scripture that speaks to welcoming a person/family to our church or gives a person comfort, support, a sense of belonging, friendship, hope, etc. Write it in the space below.
2. Write a couple of sentences about: What does this church community mean to you in this new season of your spiritual journey?

Name:

Scripture:

What it means to you personally:

Please hand this in at the Welcome Centre (glass box) by September 30, 2019.
Thank you for sharing!

Organized Creativity Project

Titled: Seasons Of Change

Update: As we have spent time working with Darlene on this incredible project, it's complexity and detail has intricately been revealed. Like preparing an wonderful meal the meat must marinate & all the details must be done prior. The same preparation is required for the congregation to have a positive painting experience. Our timeline will be extended to allow us to undergo a meaningful community art activity.

Fun Fact: Darlene has over 150 pieces of her artwork displayed in the Health Sciences Centre.

Your Commitment:

- Pick a family or personal scripture and submit (as outlined on insert at Welcome Centre)
- Set aside one hour (select Sundays and Wednesdays "to be announced") to sit down at Cafe and paint a tile with your family, friend or simply yourself.

How:

Opportunities to complete a primed 5" x 7" tile, will be announced as the tiles prep are finalized by artist and creative team. Pick one of the Sunday or Wednesdays offered (TBA) to participate. Leaders will be present to facilitate your creative time. Seats will be limited, but various date options to join in.

Timeline:

Select dates and times to be announced, as project canvas prep is readied for completion.

Result:

- Time spent sharing a special scripture, which will be written on the back of your tile.
- Time set aside to be creative together as a church family and completing a small piece of a large picture.
- In the end a beautiful mosaic of our treed landscape, completed by our WRBC FAMILY.

Organized Creativity “Brush Up Blitz”

In commemoration of the move to our new location we are asking our congregation to participate in an art project led by Darlene McPherson, an award winning Manitoba artist. The painting, representing the four seasons, will be displayed at the Welcome Centre and be a reminder of God’s faithfulness to us as a church family.

The next phase of the project is a “brush up blitz”. This is when we get to participate with Darlene in painting the four seasons. We will begin this Wednesday, February 19 and run through April 22. It will be happening on Wednesday evenings after Come to the Table from 6:30-7:30pm at the Solid Grounds Café.

Everybody is invited to pick a season to paint (it will be easy!) and then join us to complete a primed 5” x 7” tile. Mixing colors and painting will be facilitated by Darlene and Karen Schmidt.

365 Police Prayer Watch

The 365 Police Prayer Watch was established in 2014. Every year 52 churches in Winnipeg signed up to each take one week to pray for the Winnipeg Police Services and its members.

The impact of our prayers is making a difference! Thank you for being involved in this partnership!

The Bible teaches us to pray for those in authority so that peaceful order may prevail. (1 Timothy 2:1-4)

Suggestions for Daily Prayer

Monday Thank God for police willing to do a job that is often sacrificial and challenging. Thank for officers you know personally. Pray:

- about crimes that have affected you or people you know.
- for Chief of Police Danny Smythe, and all in leadership in the Winnipeg Police. Pray for wisdom in how they use the resources available to them as they face increasing budget constraints.

Tuesday Pray:

- for change in our city's reputation as "murder capital of Canada" to "City of Refuge".
- that God will expose and root out violent crime, paedophilia, human trafficking, drugs, pornography, domestic violence & child abuse.
- for God's wisdom for those dealing with these types of crime.
- Pray for a change of heart in offenders. Pray that they would come to know God's love for them and find purpose in their lives.
- Ask the Lord to end the Meth Epidemic in our city and to provide a detox centre and long term rehabilitation centre for users.

Wednesday Pray:

- for victims or people affected by crime,
- for healing and peace, for a new sense of safety and hope.
- that God would help them to forgive those who have hurt them, so they can be free from bitterness, depression and hopelessness.
- for an end to anti-social behaviour, gang culture, knife & gun crime.
- Ask the Lord to protect new immigrants and refugees from gangs, and to move the Church to action in reaching out to these newcomers.

Thursday Pray for the legal system:

- that it would truly be founded on God's truth and justice.
- that people will feel confident to trust the integrity of the system, and that breach or failure would be dealt with firmly and appropriately to restore confidence.
- for integrity for judges, magistrates, and all who uphold the law.

Friday Thank God for relationships that police have in many communities where they are welcomed and respected. Pray:

- for relationships with groups that find it hard to trust the police.
- that God would bring down barriers and build bridges, creating opportunities for relationships to be built and that police officers would show compassion, even in very difficult situations.
- especially for relationships with young people who feel marginalized or disaffected.
- for protection over police, physically, spiritually, emotionally, mentally as they engage with people who do not respond positively.

Saturday Pray for police officers and staff:

- for their marriages and families.
- that they would have opportunities to spend quality time with their families, and that they would be able to manage their work / life balance effectively.
- for support and healing for those who have experienced traumatic situations in their work.
- for spiritual protection over them as they face some of the darkest aspects of human nature. Ask God to give them the qualities they need to be able to do their job and not to become hardened and cynical. Pray that they would find hope and peace in Jesus. Pray for continued integrity and fairness in all that the police do.
