Green Team Summer Worker position!

We hope to hire 1 or possibly 2 students between the ages of 15-29 to work this summer, 24-30 hours a week with part time flexible hours in June and September.
We have 14 acres at WRBC and our grounds are used by our church community as well as the surrounding community. The student will work on grounds maintenance, assist with any outdoor projects for our church and community (like our pathway project), as well as assist in the leading and coordination and preparation of a variety of children and family events over the summer.
The deadline for submitting applications is Sunday, May 8.
Full job description will be available by contacting the church office.
