The Great Eight Goals of a Godward Life

(From Simeon and Anna – Luke 2:22 – 38)

- Are you willing to live in relative obscurity, out of the public eye, to pursue God?
- Are you seeking a righteous and devout life that lays hold on what is good?
- Are you patiently waiting for something more, and something better God has for us?
- Are you being led by the Spirit, attentive to His promptings, directed by Him?
- Are you listening to God and for God to speak a word to you as you pray?
- Are you living a life of blessing God and blessing others, speaking well to them & of them?
- Are you a worshipper of God, fasting and praying, as you wait for redemption to come?
- Are you content in God and intent on serving Him, even if you are single or widowed?

These are the qualities that prepare us to be seasoned saints one day, and impact a generation for God.
