Encounters with Jesus:

The Condemned Woman

John 7:53— 8:11

Introduction:

Unpacking John 7:53 – 8:11

A. The Conspiracy (v. 3 – 6a)

B. The Shame (v. 3 – 4)

C. The Confrontation (v. 6b – 9)

D. The Compassion (v. 10 – 11)

Application:

Questions to Consider:

1. Have I ever used truth or Scripture to judge or trap someone instead of helping them find healing?
2. Am I more concerned about being right than being loving?
3. What secret shame or guilt have I been carrying that I need to bring to Jesus?
4. Do I define myself by my worst moments—or by God's grace?
5. What would it look like for me to “go and sin no more”? What steps of change or obedience is Jesus calling me to today?
6. How can I extend the same mercy to others that Jesus has shown to me?
7. Am I living as someone forgiven and commissioned—or still stuck in condemnation and fear?
